LOÏC VOISIN HAS BEEN APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF INNOVATION, MARKETING AND INDUSTRIAL PERFORMANCE OF SUEZ GROUP.

Loïc VOISIN became Director of Innovation, Marketing and Industrial Performance of SUEZ Group on 1st October 2016.

Loïc VOISIN is in charge of directing innovation and research programmes, scientific and intellectual property policy, digitalization, technical and technological choices, technical expertise and assistance, industrial performance, industrial and environmental risks, partnerships, strategic marketing, SUEZ Ventures and Water Projects.

As part of his new functions, he has also joined SUEZ's Executive Committee. He reports to Jean-Yves LARROUTUROU, Senior Executive Vice-President of SUEZ Group.

Loïc VOISIN is a graduate of the Lille Ecole Centrale, and began his career at Bouygues Group. He held positions as Project Director and then International and Overseas Director at Stereau (SAUR Group). He joined SUEZ in 2010 as CEO of SUEZ Water Treatment's Eurasia region, before becoming the CEO of SUEZ Consulting in January 2014. He will remain in this latter position until 3 January 2017.

SUEZ

We are at the dawn of the resource revolution. In a world facing high demographic growth, runaway urbanisation and the shortage of natural resources, securing, optimising and renewing resources is essential to our future. SUEZ (Paris: SEV, Brussels: SEVB) supplies drinking water to 92 million people, delivers waste water treatment services to 65 million, collects waste produced by almost 34 million, recovers 16 million tonnes of waste each year and produces 7 TWh of local and renewable energy. With 82,530 employees, SUEZ, which is present on all five continents, is a key player in the circular economy for sustainable management of resources. SUEZ generated total revenues of €15.1 billion in 2015.
