SUEZ welcomes positively the principle of a mediation

SUEZ confirms that it welcomes positively the principle of a mediation regarding Veolia's attempted takeover bid. SUEZ's Chief Executive Officer had proposed a similar principle last week.

In this context, SUEZ will put forward propositions consistent with its determination to promote its corporate interest, that of its shareholders, employees, and all of its stakeholders. The objective will also be to ensure that France maintains its two world leaders in essential environment-related services.

About SUEZ:

Since the end of the 19th century, SUEZ has built expertise aimed at helping people to constantly improve their quality of life by protecting their health and supporting economic growth. With an active presence on five continents, SUEZ and its 90,000 employees strive to preserve our environment's natural capital: water, soil, and air. SUEZ provides innovative and resilient solutions in water management, waste recovery, site remediation and air treatment, optimizing municipalities' and industries' resource management through "smart" cities and improving their environmental and economic performance. The Group delivers sanitation services to 64 million people and produces 7.1 billion m³ of drinking water. SUEZ is also a contributor to economic growth, with more than 200,000 jobs created directly and indirectly on an annual basis, and a provider of new resources, with 4.2 million tons of secondary raw materials produced. By 2030, the Group is targeting 100% sustainable solutions, with a positive impact on our environment, health and climate. SUEZ generated total revenue of €18.0 billion in 2019.
